

Educator Form

February 18-21 • Philadelphia
Due January 24

Thank you for your interest in bringing craft to your classroom! Our Educator Program provides instructors with a complete gift package of free classroom resources, including our 60-minute documentary. Educators also benefit from a private tour and entry into the world's largest wholesale craft event – the Buyers Market of American Craft.

In order to attend the Buyers Market as an educator, you must first complete and return this form. Completed forms received after Feb 1 will be confirmed by phone. All badges are to be picked up on-site at the Buyers Market Resource Center.

Past educators who have attended the Buyers Market with student groups have found it to illustrate not only the power of small business, but also the viability of an arts career today.

Please familiarize yourself and your students with our code of conduct:

- The Buyers Market is a wholesale only business event. If you are interested in buying an item, ask for a local retailer that carries the work.
- NEVER interrupt an artist. Wait patiently for assistance.
- ASK before you take brochures as they are intended for qualified retailers.
- Your badge should be visible at all times.
- Photography is not allowed.
- Failure to comply with these guidelines will result in removal from the market.

Now that you understand our rules of etiquette, you may fully register to participate.

Please let us know how we can make your visit more fulfilling!
